First Release for Defense Project in Lee County Signed

All Other Conveyances Expected to be Completed Rapidly

The first signed option, releasing to the United States government a well-improved Marion township farm to be used for defense purposes, was secured last evening by J. D. Barber, division receiving appraiser for the United States government, who has been in the Dixon offices for the past few days, who announced the first release in the huge tract to be used for the construction of an ordnance plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Gillan and the latter's mother, Mrs. Mary A. Whalen, released their improved farm consisting of 120 acres and located one mile north of Walton in section 10 for the defense plant last evening. Other lands were in the process of release today and it was intimated that the process of securing the acreage included in the survey, would be hastily completed.

Gillan, who operates the first farm to be assigned over to the government, is a World War veteran and during World War 1, served with the 68th observation corps.

Loyalty Praised
"This type of loyalty will win this war," said Barber, government appraisal and acquisition agent, following the signing of the release. "In this instance a veteran of the last war, who then offered his life and his services to his country, now is the first to give his farm to his government to be used for defense purposes".

Mrs. Whalen, mother of Mrs. Gillan, has lived on the farm for the past 44 years and the tract of land has been in the possession of her family since 1881.

Commenting upon the response of land owners to the appraisers, Barber today said:

"It is my business to acquire land for the United States government at present in ten central western states. I have followed this work all over the country, but from an acquisition standpoint, I can truthfully state that the loyal response for land in the Green River project south of Dixon, is the finest I have encountered in my experience".

Mr. and Mrs. Gillan and family expect to vacate their farm very shortly and will move to the Hutchinson farm, four miles south-east of Dixon on U. S. route 52 near the St. James corners.

To Fence Whole Tract

The longest fence in Lee county will be erected as one of the first activities at the ordnance department project, it was stated at the acquisition offices today. While the officials were not in position to state for the exact use the Green River defense project would be put in connection with the massive national defense program, it was intimated that construction operations would begin shortly.

The fence, it was stated, would be of the cyclone or commercial type, of heavy woven wire with protecting wires. This will encircle the entire 8,350-acre tract and all crossroads within the area will be closed. The local offices today were without information con-

The War Today!

By DEWITT MACKENZIE

The big question now would seem to be, "Where do we go from Singapore?"—not in any spirit of defeat or despair, but with a grim determination to find the best and quickest solution we can for a problem which we know we can handle in due course.

The plight of this great British base cries out for recognition of the fact that the allies are fighting a defensive war in the Pacific and must continue on the defensive until they can equip themselves to assume the offensive. That being the case, we must be prepared to stand up under some further harsh blows from the Japs before we are able to check them.

Our own General MacArthur and his little band are in dire straits today under increasing enemy pressure. The fate of the East Indies themselves, so eagerly sought by Japan for their rich resources, is on the knees of the gods.

All this makes bad reading and is a matter of deepest concern, but it is no occasion for despondence. There is no possible gain saying that we have the sinews with which to win this war. We need to remember that it is almost two years since the British evacuation from the bloody sands of Dunkerque and the collapse of France—and the allies are far stronger today than they were then.

So impressive are the Japanese winnings that an international cartel of French and German in-

Advertising

Still useful even in the face of reduced stocks of things to sell, advertising must hold its place among the activities of the wise business man, believes Prof. F. A. Russell of the University of Illinois College of Commerce. There will be a buyer's market after the war, he suggests, in place of the present seller's market, and the business which has dropped out of the buyer's consciousness and lost touch with its customers will be heavily handicapped. Many firms which this lost contact during the First World War never were able to come back in the post-war era.

New products will be appearing. There are shifts in population and buying groups. Professor Russell points out. Advertising still has an important, even though a changed, task.

Senator Urges First Lady Follow LaGuardia in Retirement from OCD

Washington, Feb. 11—(AP)—Mayor LaGuardia is quitting as head of the civilian defense setup and Mrs. Roosevelt, his chief aid, has been invited by a senator to quit too.

President Roosevelt announced at his press conference late yesterday that LaGuardia, who has headed the OCD since its establishment last fall, was leaving immediately and that James M. Landis, Harvard law dean and present executive director, was taking his place.

The president explained that the New York mayor never had received a formal appointment but had been requisitioned to organize the office and was leaving now that the job had been done.

Ill Health Reason For Retirement of 64-Year-Old Navy Officer

Washington, Feb. 11—(AP)—The navy announced today that Admiral Thomas C. Hart had been relieved of his assignment as chief of allied naval forces in the western Pacific and that Vice Admiral C. E. L. Helfrich of the Royal Netherlands navy had been designated as his successor.

The navy said Hart was ill. Hart, 64, requested to be relieved from the all important naval command because of his health but no information as to the nature of the illness was given out.

Hart formerly was commander of the United States Asiatic Fleet. This was reorganized last week, the reorganization being announced February 7, and at that time Hart became commander of the combined naval forces in the American-British-Dutch-Australian area.

The American commanders actually in direct charge of the United States naval forces operating in that area were then announced as Vice Admiral William A. Glassford, Jr., in the southwest Pacific and Vice Admiral Herbert

Man Found Dead in Oregon Hotel

(Telegraph Special Service)
Oregon, Feb. 11—Jack Foster, 62, of Seward, who stopped here on a return journey from California to spend the night before returning to his home, was found dead in his room at the Sinnissippi hotel at about 8:45 o'clock this morning.

A coroner's jury, impaneled by Coroner J. C. Atkins of Foreston, at an inquest conducted at the Farrell funeral home, decided that death has been due to heart failure.

Mr. Foster, who was born in Ontario, Canada Aug. 15, 1879, is survived by his widow, Fidelia, whom he married 24 years ago, and three children.

Funeral arrangements had not been completed this afternoon, but it was said services would be held at the Congregational church in Seward, the Rev. Floyd Nelson officiating.

Neb.) urged that both LaGuardia and Mrs. Roosevelt "remove themselves immediately from the OCD so that the real work can go forward". He added that "if the communities wish to organize dancing and calisthenics, I am sure they can do it themselves without direction from the throne".

This was a thrust at Mayris Chaney, blonde dancer friend of Mrs. Roosevelt and OCD director of children's activities at $4,600 a year. The senate appropriations subcommittee took up today the $100,000,000 appropriation for the OCD which the house passed Monday with a prohibition against use of any part of the fund for instructions in physical fitness, for fan dancing, street shows and the like.

Final AP Dispatch From Singapore Is Written in "Hell"

McDaniel Describes City as He Prepares to Leave This Morn

"I am leaving."
That brief message, written at the end of a fragmentary but poignant dispatch telling of fearful air raids on Singapore during its last stand against the Japanese, was the last word received by The Associated Press from its staff reporter in Singapore, C. Yates McDaniel. McDaniel was the last American reporter to remain in the city.

Instead of placing the routine time-slug at the beginning of his message, McDaniel marked it "definitely last." China-born, McDaniel has spent much of his life in the Orient. The dispatch received this morning was the first word from him since he sent a bizarre account of the contrasts in Singapore life Tuesday morning—more than 24 hours before his "definitely last" message was received.

By C. YATES MCDANIEL
Singapore, Feb. 11—(10:30 a. m.)—(10:30 p. m. C. W. T. Tuesday)—(AP)—The sky over Singapore is black with smoke of a dozen huge fires this morning as I write my last message from this once beautiful, prosperous and peaceful city.

The roar and crash of cannonade and bursting bombs which are shaking my typewriter and my hands, which are wet with nervous perspiration, tell me without need of an official communique that the war which started nine weeks ago 400 miles away is in the outskirts of this shaken bastion of empire today.

I am sure there is a bright tropic sun shining somewhere overhead, but in my many-windowed room it is too dark to work without electric lights.

Over the low rise where the battle is raging I can see relay after relay of Japanese planes circling, then going into murderous dives on our soldiers who are fighting back in a hell over which there is no protecting screen of our own fighters.

But the Japanese are not completely alone in the skies this morning, for I just saw two "wild beasts"—obsolete bi-planes with an operating speed of about 100 miles an hour—fly low over the Japanese positions and unload bomb burdens with a resounding crash.

British fighter pilots still were taking on the enemy against overwhelming odds.

Ashamed of Himself

It makes me ashamed of myself, sitting here with my heart beating faster than their old motors, when I think what chances those lads have of getting back in their antiquated machines.

If ever brave men earned undying glory, those RAF pilots have this tragic morning.

There are many other brave men in Singapore today.

Not far away are anti-aircraft batteries in open spaces—they must be to have a clear field of fire.

Please overlook the break in continuity but a packet of bombs just landed so close I had to duck behind a wall which I hoped would—and did—screen the blast.

But those gun crews keep on fighting, their guns peppering smoke into the limited ceiling every time Japanese planes come near—that, almost constantly.

The all-clear has just sounded—what a joke!

From the window I can see three Japanese planes flying low not a mile away.

Tragic Conversation
A few minutes ago I heard a tragic two-way telephone conversation.

Eric Davis, director of the Malayan Broadcasting Corporation, urged Governor Sir Shenton Thomas for permission to destroy the outlying broadcasting station. The governor demurred, saying the situation was not too bad, and refused to issue a direct order.

Davis telephoned the station in question, instructing the staff to

Germans Stiffen Their Resistance on Russian Front

(By The Associated Press)
Adolf Hitler's invasion armies, thrown back nearly 200 miles in some sectors, were reported "definitely stiffening" their resistance today as the paralyzing grip of winter abated and fighting increased in violence along the entire 1,200-mile front.

London military quarters said the Germans now were making a determined stand.

Official soviet dispatches, however, declared the Red armies were continuing to advance, capturing a number of villages and German fortifications on the southwest (Ukraine) front.

For the second successive day, Hitler's high command cited new Russian attempts to break out of Leningrad, and declared they had been repulsed.

On the North African front, a German communique reported "strong enemy reconnaissance forces were thrown back", while British headquarters reported no change in the general situation.

Lack of News Explained
The absence of detail on the Russian front recently has been explained by a declaration that invasion communication lines are disrupted and Adolf Hitler's high command might profit from information immediately divulged.

But the Russians have acknowledged reinforcement of the German positions. And nazi ski troops, intended to offset the work of the Red army's skilled snow specialists, are in action.

Moscow's last specific announcement concerning a major tactical operation was Jan. 30, dealing with a soviet thrust across the Donets basin area to Loozava, only 70 miles from the lower Dnieper river.

A week earlier a Russian spearhead was reported to have driven to Kholm, 260 miles northwest of Moscow, to crack the northern anchor of the German winter line. This had followed by three days the recapture of Moshaisk, a key German bastion on the central front.

Funeral Singer Finds Hat Adorning Coffin

Chicago, Feb. 11—(AP)—A soprano soloist, engaged to sing at a funeral, decided to do a bit of shopping before the service. Reaching the church just on time, she caught an usher, handed him a box containing her purchase, and asked:

"Will you take care of this for me?" He nodded solemnly.

When she rose to sing, she saw atop the casket her new spring hat, a mass of violets and hyacinths.

Bataan's Defenders Face Overwhelming Land and Air Power

American Planes Down Six Enemy Ships in Spectacular Fight

Washington, Feb. 11—(AP)—Movement of enemy troops indicate an early resumption of an attack in force against Gen. Douglas MacArthur forces in the Philippines, the war department reported today, although the fighting on Bataan peninsula and enemy air activity have lessened.

There have been intermittent interchanges of artillery fire between the American island fortifications at the entrance of Manila Bay and Japanese batteries on the Cavite shore of the bay, the department said.

The war communique also said that six of the seven enemy planes reported shot down yesterday were destroyed by American fighter planes over Cavite province in one of the most spectacular air battles in the Philippine campaign. One American plane was reported missing.

Concerning the air battle, the communique said:

"Gen. MacArthur has sent to the war department additional details of the aerial combat on Feb. 9 in which several enemy planes were shot down. Several of our P-40 fighters were escorting a slow bi-plane trainer on a photographic mission over Cavite province when they encountered six enemy fighter planes. The ensuing combat was one of the most spectacular that has been waged in the Philippine campaign.

Battle Described
"Captain Jesus Villamor, of the Philippine air force, who recently was awarded the distinguished service cross with oak leaf cluster, for repeated acts of extraordinary heroism, was the pilot of the photographic plane and had landed when the enemy planes appeared. Our escorting fighters, instead of landing, vigorously engaged the enemy aircraft. A series of thrilling dog fights ensued.

Rationing of Retreaded Tires to Begin Feb. 19; Camelback Limited

Washington, Feb. 11—(AP)—Price Administrator Leon Henderson announced today that rationing of retreaded and recapped tires would begin February 19 and that it was probable that "there will be no crude rubber available for retreading, except for the small number of vehicles already eligible to obtain new tires and tubes".

The new rationing program, which includes the rationing of "camelback", the rubber compound used in the retreading process, will be carried by the present tire rationing boards.

Henderson said the War Production Board would determine each month the amount of crude rubber which could be used in making the compound and that "a certain amount will be made available each month to permit the retreading or recapping of truck tires."

"None will be available this month for the retreading of passenger car tires, and perhaps none for the month of March."

"Events will dictate the future production of this material. OPA is providing regulations broad enough to ration as much camelback as the War Production Board can make available out of our limited rubber supply".

Capture of City by Nightfall Forecast in Tokyo Broadcast

British Defenders in Desperate Eleventh-Hour Rally Today

By ROGER D. GREENE
Associated Press War Editor
Japan's expected Foundation Day celebration of the fall of Singapore apparently was frustrated today as the holiday passed at midnight, Tokyo time (10 a. m. CWT) without any announcement that the city had surrendered.

The great national holiday observes the anniversary of the legendary founding of the Japanese Empire in 660 B. C.

Axis reports had previously said Japan's invasion armies would make a determined effort to capture the city by nightfall.

A Singapore radio broadcast shortly after 11 p. m., Singapore time (11 a. m. CWT), conceded that the situation was "very serious" but said it had "not deteriorated in any way".

In Desperate Rally
Bitter, day-long fighting followed a statement by Imperial Tokyo headquarters that Japanese troops had entered what was vaguely defined as "the city area of Singapore" at 8 a. m., local time, with the stout-hearted British apparently still holding the Japanese at bay somewhere near the city limits at nightfall.

Reports reaching London said the British were staging a desperate, eleventh-hour rally.

At midnight Tokyo time, the Japanese radio broadcast a dispatch datelined "With the Japanese army outside Singapore City", declaring:

"The Japanese forces which captured the heights of Bukit Timah (5½ miles from the heart of Singapore) yesterday are advancing south and east in pursuit of the fleeing enemy."

"Advance units this morning reached the northwestern suburbs of Singapore City".

Early Fall Predicted
The radio predicted that Singapore would fall within a few hours.

With a population of more than 750,000, the "city area" extends at least four or five miles from the heart of the island metropolis.

A German broadcast said the invaders had penetrated the western part of the city, while waves of low-flying Japanese planes blasted the downtown district.

London heard that British troops were slashing back at the Japanese siege armies in two violent counter-attacks which had netted some initial success.

Allied warships sped in and out of Singapore harbor, removing women and children from the city.

Word reaching London, however, said British, Australian and Imperial Indian soldiers, defying overwhelming numbers of Japanese troops, guns and planes "scored some measure of success" in the new counter-assaults.

"The situation is certainly no worse and indications are that in some ways it is better," London quarters said.

Domei said three Japanese columns driving south across the island had trapped 30,000 British troops in the central and southeastern sections and that the fight was near a showdown.

City Raided Constantly
Dispatches from the beleaguered island said waves of Rising Sun planes subjected the city to almost constant raids this morning.

Anti-aircraft guns kept up a strong fire, but the planes flew over the city.

Dispatches from Batavia said the British and Netherlands Royal Navies were rushing in and out of Singapore harbor to evacuate women and children, ignoring the peril of incessant air and land bombardment and lurking submarines.

All useful stores and installations at the great Singapore naval base were reported blown up to prevent them from falling into the hands of the invaders.

World-wide reaction to the disaster included:

Washington—Military quarters agreed that the fall of the $400,000,000 British defense citadel would add at least a year to the War Pacific conflict.

Japan—A Tokyo commentator declared the fall of Singapore would pave the way for a meeting of Japanese, German and Italian armies in the Middle East.

On Other Fronts
On other fronts in the Far Pacific struggle:

Philippines—A war department bulletin said Japanese troop movements indicated the invaders were massing for a tempestuous new

Editor Thompson to Speak
Editor Thompson, of the Rockford Register-Republic and Morning Star, will speak to Rochelle business and professional men and their farmer guests on Friday evening, February 13th. The dinner, arranged by the Chamber of Commerce, will be held at the Methodist church. Merchants would like for interested farmers to let them know if they desire admission tickets.

Change Registration Place

Men under forty-five years of age, who have not previously registered, will do so next Monday, February 16th, in the basement of the Masonic Temple in Rochelle (south door), between the hours of 7:00 a. m. and 9:00 p. m.

About twenty-five assistants are needed to register the 900 to 1000 men anticipated to be residing or traveling in this area on Monday. At present, there has been an insufficient number of volunteers to assist in registering the group. Those who can serve are asked to notify Steven Helfer, telephone No. 406.

Those who wish to have time, should avoid the expected rush hours of 7:00 to 9:00 a. m.; 12:00 to 1:00 p. m.; and 5:00 to 7:30 p. m.

If illness, or other unavoidable cause prevents any man from registering, arrangements should be made promptly with Steven Helfer, for another time and place of registering. Arrangements were first made to register at the city hall, but that has been changed to the basement of the Masonic Temple.

C. of C. Board Met

The monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors was held in the Chamber of Commerce offices, Tuesday evening. Several important subjects were under discussion.

Defense Volunteers Needed

So many positions for volunteer defense workers of all types are still open that the need of your enrollment is again brought to public attention. Women as well as men are asked to signify willingness to serve in some capacity if needed, and each individual will be assigned to some necessary post.

The American Legion as a group has assumed responsibility for working out an air-raid warning system.

Workers to Petition

At the request of out-of-town defense workers in factories, signatures of thirty-five men and women who desire bus transportation were secured. That number of interested parties is sufficient for legal steps to be taken to secure bus routes at the hour needed. Therefore, four petitions are necessary, with the signatures of those interested, on each petition. The four petitions are at the city hall, where defense workers are asked to stop and sign them. Mr. J. M. Weeks is in charge of this transportation service.

A delicious menu selection has been planned by the Come-Double class of the Presbyterian church for a cafeteria supper Thursday evening, with serving at 5:30 o'clock and after. The public is cordially invited. Arrangements have been completed to take care of entire family groups, economically.

Jeanblanc, a very interesting letter of the routine activities of a day in camp and thanked her for cookies she sent him. He enlisted in the air corps Aug. 12, 1940.

The Saturday Night 500 club met at the Sylvester Fuller home last Saturday night. Mrs. George King and Mr. Fuller held high scores. The St. Valentine motif was carried out in the tally cards, decorations and lunch. Her bridegroom will probably soon be inducted into the army. She plans to return to her position in Marshall Field's in Chicago in another week and recently rolled an all-time high of 443 series and 161 game in the Girls' Bowling League of the Field store.

Lincoln Statue in Dixon To Be Scene of Scout Program

Public Invited to Take Part in Tomorrow's Patriotic Meet

Public schools in Dixon will be closed tomorrow in honor of Lincoln's birthday. Observance of the day will feature a pilgrimage to the Lincoln statue led by the Boy Scout troops of the city. All Boy Scouts and Cubs and other groups that will participate are to meet at the court house promptly at 2 p. m. The group will assemble there and march by way of Galena avenue and the Abraham Lincoln bridge to the location of the Lincoln statue, where the ceremony is to begin at 2:30 p. m.
The procession will be led by the massed colors of the Scout troops. Each troop is to have its American and troop flags. Troop 89 is asked to furnish drummers and buglers. Willard Moore, Scoutmaster of Troop 72 will serve as parade marshal. Any other organization desiring to participate will have the privilege of falling in line back of the boys.

uniform if possible. Boys not having uniforms are to come also. Any boys interested in becoming Scouts or Cubs are especially invited. The general public is also invited.

Girls Plan Anniversary
The Girl Scout headquarters have announced that the Girl Scouts will not take part in this observance this year. Their anniversary week will be observed during the month of March. The Daughters of Union Veterans expect to be present for the ceremony, and also representatives from some of the other patriotic organizations.

Boy Scouts from outside of the city of Dixon have been invited. This will bring to a conclusion the observance of Anniversary Week dating back thirty-two years to Feb. 8, 1910 when William Boyce a Chicago lawyer brought the Scout movement to this country from England and incorporated it under the laws of the country. During the week members of the various troops and Cub packs have been wearing their uniforms. All of the troops attended services in some church last Sunday, special services being held in the Methodist church in the morning, and in the Bethel United Evangelical church on the north side in the evening.

Window displays were featured in downtown stores. Troop 85 of Bethel Church had the use of a window at the Massey Hardware, and a camp was set up in the window with pup tent, fire for outdoor cooking backed by other Scout displays.

Leaders Are Needed
Dixon Boy Scout work has been handicapped recently due to a lack of available leadership. A number of the leaders have been called into the service of the country, or have left town to engage in other work. Men who are interested in helping with this greatly needed work can be used. This is a fine contribution to defense work, as the Scouts are being mobilized to help in local defense efforts as well as national campaigns during this emergency. Any men interested in aiding Boy Scout troops should get in touch with Paul Armstrong, 403 North Dement avenue, who is city chairman of the work, or Claude Currens, district commissioner.

At present the city of Dixon has one Senior Scout unit, three Boy Scout troops and one Cub pack. The senior Scout unit is No. 572 and is in charge of Enos Keithley, meeting at the Methodist church, for boys over fifteen years of age. The Sea Scouts sponsored by the American Legion Post is at present without a leader and inactive. This is also for older boys.

Three troops are meeting weekly for boys 12 years of age and older. Troop 72 meets at the Methodist church, and Troop 89 at the Community House, Monday evenings. Troop 85 meets at the Bethel church on the north side each Thursday evening. Vacancies for boys exist in Troop 89 and 85. Leaders are needed for Troop 89. The only Cub Pack in the city at present is sponsored by the North Central Parent Teachers Association, with Earl Slagle as leader. Dixon should have Cub packs at each school, and at least two more Scout Troops, if leadership would volunteer.

ABOUT OLIVES
When it is picked, the so-called "ripe" olive is green in color. It is placed in brine, allowed to ferment for two weeks, and then treated with lye solution, after which it is exposed to the atmosphere, turning the olive black. The lye is bleached out before canning.

& Co. of Chicago

Beyond question, enactment into law of a price control bill placing in the hands of one man the power to largely regulate the business and, to a certain extent, even the mode of living of the entire population of the United States, is the most revolutionary event in our recent history. Efforts of the farm bloc in congress to gain some advantage for their constituency were successful to the extent that the price administrator is prohibited from fixing price ceilings on agricultural products at less than 110 per cent of parity. The latter is a theoretical level which gives agricultural producers economic equality with all other elements of our citizenship. Obviously, if one class is to receive 10 per cent more than parity or equality, it would seem that all other classes must be penalized to a corresponding extent. The president apparently holds this view, as he was quoted as saying that he disapproved of the 110 per cent because quality is all that any class or group is entitled to. Strongly indicative of this attitude, he issued an executive order instructing all government agencies or corporations to release any or all commodities in their possession to other government agencies, particularly the army, navy or lend-lease. He mentioned specifically in this connection four million bales of cotton and one-hundred-fifty million bushels of wheat held by the CCC. Another important Washington development was a report that Under-Secretary of State Welles had, after his return from Rio de Janeiro, assured the chairman of the senate foreign relations committee that no agreements had been made to lower United States import duties, at the conference of American republics. This apparently refutes previous statements attributed to the department of commerce to the effect that all tariffs and other trade barriers between the Americas would be removed.

Cincinnati, Feb. 11—(AP)—River men disclosed today that the Maritime Commission was sounding out sentiment on a proposal to establish a school possibly at Memphis, Tenn., to train licensed officers for the nation's inland waterways, particularly the Mississippi river system.

The project is designed, they said, to relieve a shortage of pilots, masters, mates, and engineers resulting from rapidly increasing river traffic. New boats are being launched faster than new officers are being developed.

Waste and Dimes

We've been talking to a couple of newspaper boys—two among thousands who are selling 10-cent defense stamps throughout the United States. Their best customers (for 10-cent stamps) are poor people. Those in slightly better circumstances buy stamps of higher denominations. Those still farther up the ladder buy bonds outright. It is the buyers of 10-cent stamps we wish to discuss.One boy tells of the poor and "sickly" man who lives in a basement on an income next to nothing.
This man can't always subscribe to the paper, but he's been buying stamps regularly. There also is the widow, described by the boy as "very old," who lives in a shack. She manages to buy at least one stamp a week. The are families who can't afford shoes for the children; who can not provide a reallysustaining diet; who have to use various ingenious shifts to provide fuel and other necessities—but they always buy stamps. This is patriotism of a high order. These facts revealed by newspaper boys remind us of the scriptural widow whose sacrifice was praised by Jesus. It will be remembered that:"And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in (the treasury) two mites, which make a farthing."And He called unto Him His disciples and saith unto them . . . This poor widow hath cast more in than all they which have cast into the treasury:"For all they did cast in of their abundant; but she of her want did cast in all she had, even all her living."After talking to newspaper boys who sell dime stamps to the poor, and remembering the widow's mite, and then reading that Mayris Chaney, a dancer protegee of Mrs. Roosevelt, has drawn an OCD job at $4,600 a year; and that Melvin Douglas, motion picture actor, has been given an OCD job said to pay $8,000 a year, we wonder if the government knows there are POOR people in the country.
It is high time for the government to awaken to the fact that POOR people really are POOR people, and not just a political faction whose discontent can be exploited around election time.This government, even after receiving the dimes of the poor, is spending money faster and in greater aggregate amounts than any government ever spent before in all the history of the world. In addition to exacting taxes unprecedented here, it is heaping up a debt that will burden poor people for a century to come. Still it has money to appoint dancers and actors to jobs that ought to be manned by technicians.The actor's job was supposed to pay $8,000 a year—the same as Gen. Douglas MacArthur's salary.
The dancer was to get twice the salary paid to Capt. Colin Kelly, who lost his life sinking a Jap battleship. Douglas now denies getting any pay.There's something out of balance somewhere, and it isn't in the records of either MacArthur or Kelly or the patriotic poor who sacrifice to buy 10-cent stamps.

BEHIND
THE NEWS
By PAUL MALLON.(Distributed by King Features Syndicate, Inc. Reproduction in whole or in part strictly prohibited.)Washington, Feb. 10.—No war authority here is trying to conceal his pessimism at the turn of affairs in the Far East. No official effort is being made to be-litttle the facts or smooth them over with self-beguiling expectations.The swift surprise visit of General Wavell to the Moulmein battle front furnished an indication of what may come next. The Japs have the troops and opportunity to focus their main attack, after Singapore, upon the Burma Road.
On the Salween river front they are only about 150 miles away.There is another road in China for us from Dacca, India, near Calcutta, but its condition is uncertain. The most recent evidence indicates it is still merely in a proposed state. Certainly it is unfurnished. If the Chinese must rely on it to any great extent for supplies from the outside world, their ability to continue forceful resistance to the Japs will immediately be called into question.Few consider Australia within the scope of immediate Jap plans, but there has been a difference of opinion evident as to how long the fighting band of MacArthur could hold out.The Australians have a sizeable army, much larger than any the Japs can transport to their shores for a long time yet. Their apprehensions are high, but their prospects appear the brightest of any in the Far East.Adequate reinforcement of MacArthur would require—not just a few bombers or even replacements—but the transportation of an army comparable to the size of the Japanese army, halfway around the world from our shores. Bombers and replacements would help his inspiring effort but could hardly alter his basic situation.Military men are inclined to agree MacArthur's ability to continue depends to some extent on when the Japs reach the point where they are willing and able to press 24 hours a day with constant fresh troops to wear down his inferior force, by sheer strength of numbers.Some are finding consolation in the question of what the Japs
now are going to do for the long run with their conquered territory.
It is true Japan is not going to be able to sell any of her newly acquired oil, tin or rubber to the outside world, that she cannot reach her axis partner as long as the United Nations are in control of the sea outside the Far Eastern area. Also she is short of the basic war material, iron.But Japan is operating on a war economy which does not depend on trade for the time being. She can get some iron, possibly enough for a while, from Manchukuo, and there is a little on Luzon island in the Philippines which might be developed. Rice, her basic food, is available in Indo-China.From the standpoint of permanency, Japan's economic position is impossible, but from the standpoint of getting raw materials to sustain her war effort, her position is largely one of organizing facilities.The one valid ray in the picture is that in the region she has acquired there is not an airplane, a munitions or a shipbuilding factory. She has not enjoyed the easy pickups of finished materials that Hitler enjoyed in Europe.
She will have to roll her own.These ungilded circumstances have encouraged people here to appreciate that our war energy is not half enough yet, that the appropriation of billions or the production of materials alone is not enough, that public apathy must cease, that every ounce of national energy is necessary. They are commenting bitterly about the popularity of Pollyannas in our midst.The tendency to minimize both our setbacks and our problems is disappearing. Only a few weeks ago anyone who suggested that the whole Far East north of Australia and west of Hawaii might be lost (see column published December 29) until we could fight our way back to it, was thought to be unduly pessimistic to say the least. A phony optimism seized this country and prevailed until events began to prove it false.We needed some "blood, sweat and tears" inspiration which Churchill gave Britain after Dunkirk. The unsatisfactory events may furnish us with the impetus to do the job.

How to Act Against Railroads of StateChicago, Feb. 11.—(AP) — The attorney general today studied a request of the Illinois Commerce Commission for his opinion on what action might be taken against railroads that have increased intra-state passenger fares without the commission's approval.A ten per cent increase on all fares except suburban commutation went into effect yesterday on 25 railroads operating in the state.The commission, refusing to waive the 30-day notice provided by law, recently rejected tariff schedules filed by the roads calling for intra-state increases corresponding to those granted by the Interstate Commerce Commission for interstate travel.The commerce commission said yesterday it had received information that some railroads had increased one-way and round trip suburban fares, but that apparently none had taken action to increase the prices of multiple ride tickets. The railroads concerned have filed schedules calling for increases in multiple ride tickets to go into effect March 8.

MY BROTHER

(In memory of my brother,
Mort Parker, who was killed one year ago, Feb. 11.)Are the streets there so shiny
With radiant gold?
Are the skies always blue
As I've often been told.
Is the sun always shining
Without any rain?
Is one and all happy
Without any pain?Can you walk on your legs
That were broken before?
And the other wounds, too,
Do they hurt any more?
Oh, I'm sure that they don't.
And you're happy I know,
But my big pal and brother,
I do miss you so.Do you tease someone there
As you always did me?
And Mort, as you tease her,
Is it me that you see?
And when you don't tease her
I oft wonder too,
If she could miss teasing
As much as I do.I'll cherish our thoughts
Then life there with you
Till death takes me away,
Will be happy and gay.
No more questions to answer
In that far off land.
When Christ shall raise the dead
And I can hold your hand."Lonesome Sis Marcella"

EXPRESSES THANKS

Commander Walder of the American Legion is in receipt of a card from four of the boys who left Dixon recently to do their "bit" for Uncle Sam and all the folks they left behind them. The card was mailed from Fort Knox, Kentucky and reads as follows:
"Gentlemen of the American Legion: We sure appreciated the donation of cigarettes and candy at the bus depot the morning we left to be inducted into the army at Camp Grant last Thursday morning. There are four of the fellows that are all in the same company in Fort Knox, Ky., that would appreciate hearing from you fellows again as you mentioned at the depot that morning.
Thanks again." The card bore
the names of Pvt. Lewis R.
Quaco; Pvt. Kenyon B. Geiger; Pvt. Lawrence A. Selover and
Pvt. Joseph Bieschke, all of Co. B,
14th Bn. A. F. R. T. C. at Fort Knox, Ky.The men of the Legion who are doing this job of sending off the boys of Dixon and surrounding territory with a word of good cheer and a gift of cigarettes and candy were particularly pleased to receive the foregoing words of thanks. However, the thanks should also go to the good people of Dixon who are making this service work possible through their donations in the boxes which have been placed in some thirty-five places of business in Dixon. The donations last week were not as large as the week previous to the week of the response would be better from now on so that this service to our fighting men can be continued. He would like to hear of more people showing the same spirit as Ralph Ferguson of the Highway Department who made a substantial donation last week as did also Wm. Duling the well known tavern proprietor. Bill said that we cannot do too much for the boys who are doing the fighting for us and he saw that the collection box in his place of business topped the collections for the week by adding a goodly amount from his pocket.In addition to the candy and cigarettes the Legionnaires have purchased a supply of booklets which have been published by the National department and one of these booklets is given to each man leaving for service. It is entitled "Fall In" and contains innumerable articles and information which should make it a great desire for the civilian of today because the soldier or sailor of tomorrow. There is information as to rates of pay, terms and expressions used in the army, navy and air corps, questions usually asked by recruits and the answers and much other pertinent information.
Since the inception of this program by the local post last December over one hundred fifty boys have received cigarettes, candy, coffee and donuts were served to a group of one hundred twenty-five selective service men who went to Chicago for examination. This group left on the 5:10 morning train and the Legionnaires are in hope that the draft board will choose a later train in the future so it will not be necessary to put on a night shift.

STATE FEDERATION DEFENSE CHAIRMAN TO ADDRESS DIXON WOMAN'S CLUB ON SATURDAY

The entire Illinois Federation of Women's club defense program will be presented in a general way, and special features of the national and state defense programs will be pointed out by a well-informed Chicago woman who is coming to the lecture platform of the Dixon Woman's club on Saturday afternoon. The speaker, Mrs. Harry A. Brinkman, co-chairman of the Illinois Federation of Women's club defense committee, is scheduled to speak at the Loveland Community House at 2 p. m., a half-hour earlier than the clubwomen's regular meeting time.

"Total Defense" is to be Mrs. Brinkman's subject. She has engaged in extensive research on the origin, growth and development of the Republican form of government, publishing her findings in 1933. In 1940, she established the Illinois Federation's first division of crime prevention and control.

During the past three years, Mrs. Brinkman has been studying consumer education trends. She is a member of the board of curators of Stephens college, Columbia, Mo., where this movement was launched in the middle west, and was thus able to watch developments closely.

Her work in these directions fits her for the co-chairmanship of the defense committee, according to Mrs. W. T. Bruckner, General Federation director of Illinois, who appointed Mrs. Brinkman to her post.

Research and organization on defense were started in August, and the Federation Defense booklet published a short time later. Sixteen chairmen, representing various sections of Illinois, collaborated in this work. Their recommendations were so thorough that the outbreak of war did not necessitate any changing of the Federation program.

Mrs. Edwin W. Merrick's American citizenship and international relations department has arranged Saturday's program, which is expected to attract clubwomen from several neighboring clubs throughout Lee county and the 13th District Federation. Several district and county officers have received invitations to meet Mrs. Brinkman at luncheon at the Hotel Nachusa, preceding the afternoon program.

Composing Mrs. Merrick's committee are Miss Myrtle Scott, Mrs. F. H. Clendenen, Mrs. F. L. Blewfield, Mrs. H. F. Ware, and Mrs. H. W. Leydig. Miss Esther Barton, Mrs. Merrick, and Mrs. E. V. Mellett are the local club's co-chairmen of national defense.

Mrs. Elwin Wadsworth is hostess chairman for Saturday's meeting. Her co-hostesses include Mrs. Henry Jensen, Mrs. C. A. Johnson, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. Jack Johnson, Mrs. R. A. Joslyn, Mrs. L. B. Kamenetz, Mrs. F. M. Kaufman, Mrs. J. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Earl Kennedy, Miss Ella Kentner, Mrs. Bert Kestred, Mrs. Frank Kingsley, Miss Margaret Kling, Mrs. Frank Kreim, Mrs. A. H. Tentative Plans Are Announced for Debut Party Here

With the flower of the nation's manhood registering and waiting or departing for active duty in national defense, Mrs. John Gould Ralston of Dixon and Nantucket, Mass. is waiting until later to announce definite plans for the debut party of her older daughter, Joan. Original plans for the affair, before this country entered the war, were for a dancing party here on Saturday, June 27, at the Ralston estate, "Reynoldswood", for Joan's friends in Nantucket, New York and Chicago, as well as her former school friends in Dixon.

With many of the young men who would have been included on the guest list for the June party are already in khaki, and others certain to become draftees or enlistees in the intervening weeks, no further plans for the affair will be announced at present. The trend of events between now and early summer will determine the date and nature of the debut party.

Miss Ralston, a former student at the Girls Latin school in Chicago, will be graduated in June from Spence school in New York, where she is serving as student director of the glee club. The glee clubs of Spence and Trinity schools presented a joint recital under her direction last Friday in the auditorium at Spence.

Games of hearts were the evening's pastime, with Mrs. John Rohrer and Mrs. Robert Grow receiving favors. Yellow jonquils trimmed the refreshment table for a Valentine lunch, following the games.

FROM FLORIDA

William de Lhorbe, Jr. and his bride, who have just returned from a wedding trip to Florida, spent the week-end in Oregon with his parents, the senior William de Lhorbe. The couple, who will reside in Chicago, left Tuesday for Washington, D. C., where Mr. de Lhorbe will transact business.

young clubwomen took place at the Loveland Community House, with Mrs. C. A. Mellott as guest speaker. Prefacing her remarks with Edgar Guest's familiar quotation, "It takes a heap of living in a house to make it home," Mrs. Mellott emphasized five principles—style, background, scale, color and individuality—in interior decorating.

Illustrating her talk with pictures, Mrs. Mellott described various types of houses and their furnishings. "If you are afraid to start with color," she said, "keep in mind the world of nature, and you will never go wrong."

Miss Shirley Wickey, chairman of the American home and garden department, introduced the speaker, whose talk was followed by an informal discussion.

During their business meeting, the club members discussed plans for joint sponsorship of a bingo party with the Elks lodge on Wednesday evening, Feb. 25.

Thirty-one members and a visitor were present. Refreshments were served by Miss Marjorie Friel, Miss Glea Rutherford, Mrs. Louis Salzman, Miss Francilla Devine, and Miss Marguerite Rosbrook.

Monuments Are Described for Practical Club

If members of the Practical club were statistically uninformed concerning their nation's monuments before yesterday's meeting of the club at the home of Mrs. Lester Street, they found enlightenment in a paper on that subject, read by Mrs. Frank Wilson. A dessert luncheon, with Mrs. Clark Rickard presiding at the refreshment table, preceded the program, during which Mrs. Wilson reviewed the national monument proclamation, and described a number of well-known memorials.

"While national monuments differ from national parks in several vital ways," Mrs. Wilson explained, "both are outdoor museums and have high educational values. They come under three departments—interior, agriculture and war."

The American Antiquities bill was enacted in June, 1906, the clubwomen learned, and later, the president signed a proclamation covering four national monuments, the first group of what afterward became a noble system. The largest number approved in any one year was eight, in 1924.

Wyoming has the distinction of having the first national monument, park and forest—Devils Tower monument, Yellowstone national park, and Shoshone national forest. Two noted monuments, Washington monument and the Statue of Liberty, were described in detail.

Construction of the Washington memorial, Mrs. Wilson told her listeners, was started at the close of the Revolutionary war in 1783, was opened to the public in 1888, and cost $150,000,000. It requires an electric elevator one and quarter minutes to ascend to the top, or, if one desires to walk, there are 898 steps leading to the summit.

The Statue of Liberty, the largest statue in the world, was given to this country by France and was completed in 1883. Sixty men worked ten years to complete the statue, first displayed in miniature at the Philadelphia Centennial. On only one occasion—the fiftieth anniversary of the statue, when a French flag was displayed—has any other but the American flag flown from its peak.

There has also been a special registrar appointed to register any registrant who is confined to the Dixon public hospital. Should anyone who is required to register be confined to his home because of illness on registration day he should contact the local board, which will arrange for his registration.

The local board is very grateful for the number of volunteers who have offered their services on registration day, the number of volunteers being greater than the number required. They have advised the ones who are to assist on the registration where they are to work and will later advise the hours that each will be required to work, which is absolutely gratis as there is no one paid for this work. The hours of registration are from 7:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m., next Monday, February 16. Bataan's Defenders

Four enemy fighters were immediately shot down. A fifth was crippled and veered off to the north, landing on an air field near Pilar where it was destroyed by our artillery. The sixth plane fell out of control and was ultimately found where it crashed in the mountains of Bataan. This accounted for all of the enemy planes engaged in the combat. One of our planes is missing.

Face Blackest Hour

Allied arms in the Pacific faced their blackest hour since Singapore. The Japanese evidently were intent on following up their spectacular Singapore campaign by annihilating the only other potential threat to their southern drive—the stubborn American-Filipino forces on Bataan peninsula.

War department communiques left scant room for doubt on the desperate, almost forlorn nature of MacArthur's fight, but President Roosevelt brought out by indication yesterday the value of its contribution to the present grand strategy of the United Nations.

The prime objective of that strategy, Roosevelt explained to his press conference, was to prevent an enemy breakthrough on the front, while inflicting the maximum punishment on the foe and his resources during the period the allies are creating a superior military machine.

Under Terrible Pressure

The war department communique last night gave some indication of the greatly superior enemy forces, which MacArthur has been keeping from other theaters of operations. On Bataan, it reported, at least five enemy divisions have been identified as participating in the heavy fighting of recent days. The strength of a Japanese division is 25,000 men and the fact that at least five have been in action gives some idea of the tremendous pressure the enemy has been able to apply on the peninsula front, which is believed now no wider than 15 miles.

Besides the Japanese divisions identified in action, the war department said, another full division is guarding communications behind the front. Still another force is divided between the occupation of Manila and the bombardment of the American forts which bar the entrance to Manila Bay. In addition, there are large numbers of enemy support troops in the other section of Luzon island. And further reinforcements are constantly arriving.

Jap Strategy Apparent

The Japanese strategy apparently is to overwhelm MacArthur by sheer weight of numbers, very much as the Russians finally broke the Finnish line on the Karelian isthmus in the Russo-Finnish war.

At the White House yesterday during the general war discussion Roosevelt was asked whether he thought the attitude of the American people had been complacent in receiving the "bad news" on the conflict to date, and taking for granted ultimate victory.

Roosevelt replied that this may have been true to some extent, but he believed that the people now had a better understanding in every part of the country that, whether we liked it or not, this was a world-encircling war.

F. W. Eisele yesterday sold his farm, which is known as the Gottle place located three and one-half miles south of Dixon, on state route 26 to Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCoy. The Eisele farm was reported to have sold for $150 per acre.

Tomorrow Part Holiday

Thursday, Lincoln's birthday, will generally be observed as a national holiday in Dixon. All of the public schools, the high school, court house, offices in the city hall, both banks, the public library and the offices of the state highway department will be closed the entire day. Fitting observation of the day will take place in the afternoon, when patriotic organizations will unite with the Boy and Girl Scout troops of Dixon and vicinity, in brief exercises at Lincoln's statue.

Admiral Hart, U S N, Final AP Dispatch

F. Leary, in the Australian-New Zealand area.

Admiral Helfrich, who now becomes "Acting Commander, Combined Naval Forces, ABDA area", is the supreme commander of the Netherlands East Indian navy. He is 55 years old a native of Java, and a graduate of the naval college of Den Helder, The Netherlands.

He was a classmate of Captain Rannett, Netherlands naval attaché here.

Hart in Hot Spot

Admiral Hart normally would have been retired on his 64th birthday last June, but President Roosevelt kept him in his Asiatic command because of the increasing tension of the international situation and when war actually came last December, Hart was in the naval hot spot.

On January 17 he added to his duties as chief of the Asiatic fleet additional responsibilities as commander of the allied forces in the western Pacific.

Since December 7 there has been no day without intensive activity on the part of units under Admiral Hart's command. Greatest of these actions of course was the battle of Macassar Strait in which joint American and Dutch military and naval forces sunk or damaged between 50 and 60 Japanese ships at present without a Japanese warship and transports out of a convoy numbering approximately 100 vessels.

Hart is reported to have sent American units into that fight with orders not to quit unless they were sunk or until their ammunition was exhausted.

Helfrich—full name Conrad Emil Lambert Helfrich—has spent 20 of his 34 years of naval service in the Indies, and at the time of his appointment as commander in chief of the Dutch East Indies fleet was the youngest admiral in Dutch naval history.

A specialist in submarine and destroyer operations, the Indies fleet under his command has its main strength in those vessels and in an undetermined number of cruisers—at least three, at most five.

It was Admiral Helfrich who, a full week before the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, ordered his ships out to sea. As a direct result of that order a Dutch submarine, within 24 hours of the first Japanese blow, was able to sink four Japanese transports off the Malay coast.

In the weeks that followed the Dutch navy and air force kept up their pace of sinking or damaging one Japanese ship for each day of war, and among Dutch navy men Helfrich now is referred to as the "Ship-a-Day" Admiral.

A short, round-faced sailor, Admiral Helfrich with knowing every usable inlet and bay in the 3,100 miles of contested East Indies waters.

In describing the new naval set-up resulting from Admiral Hart's retirement, navy officers said Helfrich, previously always a sea-going officer, would direct the over-all strategy of allied warships from a naval base in the Indies, while Vice Admiral Glassford would be the "sea-going" naval director of the joint forces.

We tuned in on its wavelength. In the middle of a broadcast in Malayan, urging the people of Singapore to stand firm, the station went dead.

I am leaving now in a car which I swear I will put into forward gear and head straight into the Straits of Malacca.

I left one car for the Japanese in Nanking in 1937 but never again.

Don't expect to hear from me for many days but please inform Mrs. McDaniel, Hotel Preanger, Bandoeng, Java, that I have left this land of the living and the dying.

Ten Minutes to Pack

At my elbow while I write this last dispatch is Captain O. K. Fearon, the minister of information adviser on censorship, who is breakfasting on biscuits and brandy.

Henry Steel, army public relations officer, who has seen us through a bad situation from the Thailand border to Singapore, has just told me I have ten minutes to pack up and leave.

When Henry says "Go" I go. So goodbye to Singapore.

F. Y. Tong of Canton, who has been the landlord for the British ministry of information and the Malayan subsidiary of the BBC, just showed me three famous Chinese paintings he is carrying with him to the vessel on which the ministry of information, the Malayan broadcasting subsidiary and I—first to arrive and last to leave of the foreign correspondents—are taking our chances of getting clear of this close-beleaguered fortress.

WORD PICTURE

(By The Associated Press)

A bizarre account of life in Singapore under the Japanese planes and guns was dispatched by McDaniel at 7:30 p. m. (7:30 a. m. C. W. T. Tuesday), the last word received from him until the dispatch Wednesday morning. He told of the furious British resistance to the Japanese but said they were falling back from the outer ring of defenses under the merciless enemy assaults by aid and land.

Then he gave this word picture of the city under siege:

I looked down on Singapore in the late (Tuesday) afternoon on a scene of striking contrasts.

To the north columns of black smoke billowed skyward from burning oil tanks, providing a somber backdrop for the stage on which the grim drama is reaching its climax.

The opposing guns ceased their pounding for a brief moment but, darting in and out of the drifting clouds of smoke, Japanese dive bombers were delivering their last loads of the day before darkness called them back to their bases.

Unnatural Calm

The scene to the south was one of unnatural calm. In the far distance, wisps of smoke spiraled slowly over fishing villages on the small Dutch islands which dot the straits between Malaya and Sumatra.

Along main roads in the foreground motor cars, trolleys and rickshaws were carrying people home after the day's work.

In front of the famous Raffles Hotel cars were depositing patrons of the daily tea dance and outside the movie house immediately below people were lining up at the box office to see Joel McCrea and Ellen Drew in "Reaching for the Sun."

The oddest touch of unreality to the entire scene was provided by a letter which my fellow observer, Eric Davis, director of the Malayan Broadcasting Corporation, received from a gramophone corporation, informing him that "Record number DB—is unavailable for broadcast without special permission of Messrs. Walt Disney and Mickey Mouse, Incorporated."

Dixon Lions Club Votes Support to Airplane Contest

A large-scale construction program is scheduled to get underway in Dixon schools, with announcement today of a model airplane building contest, to be sponsored by the Dixon Lions club. In cooperation with the state board of vocational education at Springfield, students of the city schools will be asked to contribute 100 completed models—two sets of 50 types each—toward a 30,000 quota for the state of Illinois, to be donated to aeronautical schools for study by men in training.

At their weekly luncheon meeting yesterday, Lions club members agreed to contribute funds to cover the expense of materials for the planes. Blueprints of 50 different models will be furnished by the vocational board, and it is estimated that approximately 300 planes will be submitted by Dixon students, from which the local quota of 100 will be chosen.

A. V. Lund heads the contest committee. His co-workers include A. H. Lancaster, Robert Warner, and Em Rorer.

William Edwards was speaker at yesterday's meeting of the Lions club, choosing "The Poultry Industry" for his subject. Poultry raising, he declared, is one of the most undervalued businesses in the United States, and is vital to national defense. He referred to an increased demand for eggs and meat in the lend-lease bill, and stated that poultry raisers have been asked to increase their production by 50 per cent to meet the growing demands.

B. Gregorius of Sterling was a guest of the club.

Meister Brau Win Three Games From League Leaders Myers and Nolan

Blackhawk Five Win Three and Set New Team Series Record

Jones Rolls High Game Score For the Evening

As the City Bowling League went into full swing last night at the Dixon Recreation things were really happening in a big way for the League Leaders, the invulnerable Myers and Nolan quint, were tripped up three consecutive games by the Meister Brau five. M. Potter picked off the most pins for his Meister Brau mates with 81. R. Hoyle collected 568 to lead the Myers and Nolan outfit.

Grabbing the spotlight honors for the night was the Blackhawk Food Store which thumped the Reynolds Wire team three straight, and ended up with a series at 3049 which marked a new season record for High Team Series. The old High Team Series record was held by the Post Office at 3041. Jones was high man for the winners with a series of 574 and he also copped single game honors for the night with a 234. Fordham paced the Wire team with a 567.

The second place Post Office team gained a slight margin on the leading Myers and Nolan boys by taking two out of three games from the Three Deuces. Fallstrom ran the high count for the Mailmen with a series of 533. Hahn knocked over the most pins for the Three Deuces with a 563 score.

The Strub and Schultz keglers bowled their way to two wins over the Myers Royal Blue team as Klonka's 505 counted high for the Oilers and F. Smith and McClanahan each turned up a 518 for the Royal Blue.

Cottage at School for Boys Damaged by Fire

St. Charles, Ill., Feb. 11.—(AP)—Fire today caused damage, estimated by firemen at between $15,000 and $20,000, to the Cleveland cottage of the Illinois State Training School for Boys near here.

The fire, discovered at about 11 o'clock last night, burned through the roof, the attic and the entire second floor of the two-story dormitory before it was brought under control. Fire departments from St. Charles and Geneva were called to help the institution's fire fighting force.

All 39 inmates were removed from the building.

Dudley Skinner, night custodian of the dormitory, discovered the fire in his own day room while making his rounds.

Assistant Manager Harold Johnson said he believed the fire started from defective wiring.

Princeton Tigers Upset Hall High Of Spring Valley

Hall Reserve Team Beats Princeton 30-20

The Princeton High School Cagers found themselves last night and with a brilliant display of ball playing defeated an aggressive Hall High of Spring Valley by the score of 38 to 35.

Princeton has won her right to be called a first-class ball club for all through the game she played a cool, deliberate and purposeful game against a fast charging, reckless Hall team which didn't have much regard as to body contact and random fouling. Only once did the Tigers look as though they might crack which was in the fourth quarter when Hall moved up to within one point of the Hosts; but the Tiger quint came back with control of the ball and displayed a beautiful brand of passing which stalled off the visitors from playing the ball until the latter let herself wide open and the Tigers scored in the closing seconds to insure a victory.

The first quarter was pretty much one of even up ball and the score stood at 8 to 7 in favor of the Tigers; but the second canto saw both quintets loosening up their offensives and Hall counted 10 points but the Princeton five bettered it by five and they led the visitors 23 to 17 at half-time.

In the third frame the Hall boys showed their real mettle with a bit of shoving and miscellaneous body contacts but the Tigers didn't react as an ordinary ball club, instead they kept moving their offensive passing in a quicker way and stepped their timing on shots which brought them an ultimate four point margin at the end of the quarter 12 to 8. In the fourth the Hall boys did their best showing of basketball and in the first four minutes of play reduced the Tigers' ten point margin to five and then proceeded to get within one point of the Hosts. Princeton at this point declined a free toss, took the ball out of bounds and played a remarkable stall game until Hall opened the gates and one of the Tigers couldn't resist so he increased his team's margin by two more points. With only five seconds remaining to play Hall had no time to counter.

Brown, Tiger pivot man, dropped in seven buckets and five charity shots to pace his mates with 19 points, Frantzen of the Tigers whistled the net six times for 12 counters while Riva and Barto for Hall scored 8 points.

RESERVE GAME

The Princeton Ponies, playing a game battle, didn't fare as well as her Varsity brothers and lost a 30 to 20 decision to a faster Hall team.

Hall took an early lead of 8 to 5 at the first quarter, and boosted the count to 19 to 8 at half-time.

At no time in the third frame did the Tigers bother the Hall five and she was outscored 8 to 3. A plucky Princeton team came back in the fourth period to outscore and outplay her opponents but the Hall margin was too great to even contemplate a Tiger win and the game rested at 30 to 20 favoring Hall.

Weicherding of Hall Township led his mates with 8 points while Teece carried the burden for the Tigers with 9 counters.

John Parker, Taunton (Mass.) Daily Gazette: "In recent years Japan has developed the game of basketball in its schools and colleges. From the looks of things at Pearl Harbor, the Japs have produced the world's best foul shooters."

SPORTPOURRI—
What ever became of the New York Athletic Commission rule that a Champion couldn't fight in a heavier class without giving up his title?... Sammy Angott, Gus Lesnevich, and Tony Zale hardly got the New York Crowns settled on their heads before signing for overweight bouts... That Wausau (Wis.) high school Hockey Team that hadn't been beaten since 1935 finally got it on the chin from Waupaca last week for its first loss in 70 games.

CLEANING THE CUFF—
Mel Ott will be feted by the New Orleans Monday quarter-backs Club tonight. And just to make speckmaking tougher for Master Mel, they invited all comers to bring their wives... Charley Whitehead, the crack New Jersey golfer, won't go after his third championship of golf club champions in Florida this winter because he's too busy as an airplane spotter... Gus Greenlee, who managed John Henry Lewis into the light heavyweight title, is in a Pittsburgh hospital with pneumonia... The Vanguard of the Giants, Prexy Horace Stoneham, already is on the way to training camp a week ahead of the athletes... The income tax collectors will get about $20,000 of that 45-grand bonus Dick Wakefield collected for signing with the Tigers before Dick even starts to earn it.

LAST LAUGH—
This may be an old one, but up around St. Paul they claim one fan has the real solution to a lot of hockey problems... during a heated argument on the ice he bellowed, "They never have played this game according to the rules, so why start now?"

Deferment of Youths Employed on Farms is Up to Service Boards

Washington, Feb. 11.—(AP)—The selective service system, in a memorandum to state directors, has declared the deferment of agricultural workers a problem for local boards.

Director Lewis B. Hershey, in a letter, told Senator Capper (R-Kas.) yesterday that the memorandum said the problem should be approached "with full appreciation of the considerations of the importance of the production produced, importance of the enterprise, importance of the skill and relative labor shortage in the area."

Hershey said the selective service act prohibited group deferments, including farm labor, but that selective service headquarters had recognized the necessity of some action to protect productive capacity of farms.

The director's letter to Capper followed transmission by the senator to Hershey of communications from Henry J. Kreinsieck and others of Hanover, Kas., declaring that farm youths were being taken into the army and could not be replaced.

Cadet Fay Brook of Sterling Killed In Flight Training Hop

Three Others Killed As Bad Storm Is Met

Aviation Cadet Fay Book, 23, former Sterling high school football star was killed in a plane crash near Hachita, N. M. Monday night after being lost from his flight instructor in a blinding rainstorm. Other casualties accounted were Earl Buster Fritz, 24, Owen, Wis.; Walter S. Beamer, 28, Lansing, Mich.; Charlie B. Coates, 24, Lubbock, Texas and Thomas A. Bohr, 23, Columbus, Ohio, saved his life by parachuting to safety.

The wrecked planes of Fritz and Book were found early Tuesday. Those of Beamer and Coates were found late in the afternoon of Tuesday. At the time of the crashes the aviation cadets were doing a routine night training flight when they suddenly encountered an unreported blinding rainstorm which sent some of the flight back to Luke Field for landings while others made it safely to El Paso, Texas which was their destination; however, a few of the cadets were lost in the storm and crashed. Previous to the flight taking off, an all clear weather report was given and an ultimate ceiling reported.

A Grand Guy

Fay Book was born Sept. 2, 1918 and attended the rural schools east of Sterling. He entered Sterling high school in 1932 and until he finished in 1936 he didn't only make his name known as a football star through this section but he was a high ranking student, a member of various activities, and a grand guy with his friends. For two years he was life guard at the Lawrence pool in Sterling and gave this up to attend Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wis. While at the university he played freshman football and the following year was on the varsity squad but before he played any he went into army service.

To we in Dixon, Fay Book will always be known as one of the greatest football centers which any of our graders ever had to face; not only a star performer but a grand gentleman even in battle.

Milledgeville Wins Over Chadwick Five

The Milledgeville "Millies" by outscoring the hosts, Chadwick, in every period had little trouble in winning by a score of 44 to 31. The Chadwick second team balanced things up for the evening, 23 to 16.

The "Millies" took a 9 to 4 lead in the first quarter, increased it by one point in a high scoring second frame and the board read 24 to 18 favoring the "Millies" at half-time.

The "Millies" continued her fast-break through the third period and ended it with a 7 to 4 margin and increased it in the fourth 13 to 9 which gave her a final 44 to 31 decision.

Oncken, "Millies" forward, counted eight field goals and two charity points for his team's highest count. Frommelt, playing at forward, scored 11 points for the Chadwick five.

Malta Five Gives Steward Close Run

The Steward High Basketball Team, who has been ringing up one grand season, went over to Malta last night and got the scare of her life with the Hosts played them to within two points and Steward managed to win 45 to 43. The Steward reserves with less trouble overcame the Malta second team 28 to 17.

Malta with a surprising attack hot shooting in the first quarter commanded a lead of 20 to 10 which made things look very dismal for the visitors. In the second stanza the Steward five managed to come back a little by outscoring her rivals 13 to 4 and the half ended at 24 to 23 in favor of Malta. To keep the scare surviving the Malta boys kept plugging away through the third and tightened her defense on the visitors which brought the hosts a 9 to 8 count as the period ended. With a two point margin against them at the outset of the fourth "go" the Steward team threw caution to the wind and banged away for buckets, and the Malta team followed suit with the same type of play; however, Steward's superior shooting ability came to the fore and she outscored the Hosts by four points which gave the visitors a 45 to 43 win as the gun sounded.

Rock Falls Downs Comm. High Easily

Coach George Quire's Rock Falls Rockets continued their victory march last night in the Sterling coliseum by defeating the Sterling Community five 27 to 13.

In a low scoring first frame the Rockets took a slight edge with a 4 to 1 margin, then really turned the heat on after feeling out Community in the second frame with a count of 10 to 2 which gave the Rockets a half-time lead of 14 to 3.

Coach Quire's boys, even though they had a comfortable margin on which to rest, kept pounding away and outscored the Community quintet in both the third and fourth quarters. The game ended with the count of 27 to 13 in favor of the Rockets.

Kyger with four buckets and three free points was high point man for the winners while Dawson and Saunders each garnered five points for the losers.

Red Cross Funds Needed
An announcement from the Red Cross headquarters in Washington states that the original minimum goal of $50,000,000 must be raised to $65,000,000 if the mounting needs of services to the armed forces is to be met. It is now believed that if this new figure is reached no further war fund appeal will be necessary during 1942. It accordingly becomes necessary that original quotas be oversubscribed by an amount of 30 percent.

The record in Ogle county so far is perceptibly better than the average for the nation since the original quota has not only been met but also exceeded by about 10 per cent. With the continued exodus of young men from our firesides the necessity of placing behind these men the reliable and merciful service which only the Red Cross can offer becomes more apparent to all of us and the additional $900 still needed should offer a welcome opportunity to all those who have not as yet contributed. The following depositories have been established through the county at which contributions can be left or they can be mailed to A. W. Bass, war fund chairman, at Oregon.

- Byron—Rock River Community bank.
- Chana—DeLair grocery.
- Creston—Post office.
- Davis Junction—Post office.
- Egan—Post office.
- Forreston—Forreston State bank.
- Grand Detour—Mrs. Holger Jensen.
- Holcomb—Holcomb State bank.
- Kings—Vernon Davis grocery.
- Leaf River—Post office.
- Lindenwood—Post office.
- Monroe Center—Post office.
- Mount Morris—Citizens State bank.

Oregon—Ogle County National bank.

Polo—Polo State bank.

Rochelle—National Bank of Rochelle.

Woosung—Post office.

Townships contributing $100 or more are shown below with the new quotas required to meet the new national goal.

Township	New Quota	Contrib'd
Buffalo	$ 760	$ 600
Byron	425	421
Flagg	1510	1655
Forreston	405	205
Grand Detour	85	175
Leaf River	192	127
Marion	170	216
Mr. Morris	845	521
Oregon	1020	990

Nashua 68 115
White Rock .. 156 104

The above tabulation indicates that only 11 of the 26 townships in Ogle county have contributed as much as $100 each. There is still opportunity for these missing townships to qualify for mention among those supporting this Red Cross service for their boys at the front.

W. S. C. S. Meeting

The W. S. C. S. of the Methodist church met on Thursday, Feb. 5, in the social room of the church, with a good attendance present. Since the president, Mrs. Julie Baker, was unable to be present, the vice-president, Mrs. Blanche Durkes, was in the chair. The devotional service was conducted by Betty Gonnerman. The business session followed, with discussion of various plans of future activities. There was an expression of general favor for the placing of the U. S. flag and the Christian flag in the auditorium of the church, and a committee was to be appointed to investigate possibilities along this line and to report at the March meeting.

Announcement was made of the group meeting of the W. S. C. S. of Joliet-Dixon district, which will be held in the Franklin Grove church, probably about May 1st. This is usually an all-day meeting, and brings W. S. C. S. members and officers from all the churches in the Rock River group. Our society is favored in being selected as hostess of this important meeting, of which the program and plans will be announced later.

The program of the day was in charge of Mrs. Hannah Myers, with the subject, "Inter-racial Problems." She spoke briefly, in introduction, of the United States as a "melting-pot", made up of people of all races and creeds, from many different parts of the world. For this day's study only three groups—the Negroes, Jews and Japanese—were to be considered, and the program was presented with that plan foremost. Mrs. Ruth Bell gave a most interesting talk concerning the Negro race in this country, telling of the fine work that is being done in the schools and other institutions in helping them to take their rightful place in the world. She spoke very specially of the "Bethlehem Centers", which are settlement centers for Negroes where white and black people work together for a better world, often bringing about, gradually and quietly, a changed attitude on both sides as a result of working together. A study of these Bethlehem Centers, first established by Methodist women of the south in 1912 in Augusta, Georgia, and now scattered in many southern cities, is most interesting. Mrs. Bell told, too, of instances from her own knowledge and observation during their years in Chicago, where warm friendships had developed between white people and Negroes, with mutual benefit.

Mrs. Ada Hey contributed a very fine article on the Jewish question, taken from the Atlantic Monthly. The first part was from Albert J. Nock, who unites on "The Jewish Problem in America", and the second from Prof. Arthur Compton. They both warn in America of the dangerous tendency toward intolerance of those of different races and culture, which is the most fertile soil for the growth of totalitarianism. "We must work out a practical relationship between the American Jew and his fellow citizens, strong enough to stand the shocks and strains ahead, and not only with the Jews but wherever injustice and discrimination are found."

Miss Clara Lahman spoke on the Japanese question, and the difficult situation facing American Japanese who were born in this country and many of whom are entirely loyal to the U. S. This too, provides a situation where much understanding is needed, for "nobody can say that there are not weaknesses in our
